

Join the FUN for the 29th annual Pagan River Raft Race!

Saturday, June, 29th 2019, Smithfield Station, Smithfield, VA

The race will be held on Saturday June 29, 2019 at 2:30 p.m. Teams should begin arriving at 1:30 pm & no later than 2:00 pm to allow for placement at the starting point. The Race course will begin near the Smithfield Station Light House, running north to a marked buoy which MUST be circled by each raft and then south towards the finish line at the Cypress Creek Bridge*.

Sign up for one of two categories:

1. Huck Finn

Homemade floating vessel – no previous floating device

2. Modified

Any existing floating hull modified so the original hull is not apparent or visible

Race Format: All entrants will race in their respective category. Then, the first place winners of each category, including juniors, will race each other, for the title of “King/Queen of the Creek”. The final winner will have the ability to have their name added to the existing Raft Race winner plaque on display at Smithfield Station. Additional prizes for various categories will be provided and based on the race committees official judgement of worthiness.

Rules:

1. Raft MUST be manually powered.
2. BE CREATIVE & HAVE FUN. The more OUTRAGEOUS, the better!
3. Do not worry; the Coast Guard will be there to assist anyone who sinks.

PRIZES ARE AWARDED TO MORE THAN JUST THE RACE WINNERS!!

Be sure to get your team together...friends, coworkers, neighbors, and get down to this awesome event!

All proceeds for this event will be benefit the Pagan River KEEP Foundation’s mission to increase knowledge, educational opportunities, enjoyment & pride of the Pagan River and its surrounding waterways.
